

For the dogs

Eighteen teenagers from Burke County High School's Interact Club spent Saturday washing cars for a cause. The club, which is sponsored by the Waynesboro Rotary Club and headed up by BCHS teacher Karen Reeves, has been partnering with the Old Fella Burke County Animal Rescue for the past year. The funds raised will help pay for foster care and adoption services for animals rescued through the Old Fella group.

